Dear friends and colleagues
The Taiwan Academy of Periodontology (TAP) invites you to join us at its 2019 annual meeting, which coincides with a global symposium, to be held in modern Taipei City. This global symposium will focus on the challenges and solutions in the areas of periodontal and peri-implant diseases. Internationally renowned leaders in periodontology have been invited as the symposium's keynote speakers. As many as twenty speakers from all over the world will focus on four of the most challenging fields in periodontal and implant therapy. These are hard and soft tissue regeneration, peri-implantitis, implant complication and interdisciplinary therapy.

Please join us for this exciting event and at the same time enjoy the beauty of Taiwan, delicious Taiwanese food and the quality of lectures. The conference will be held at the Howard Civil Service International House from Nov 22 (Fri) to Nov 24 (Sun), 2019. Please refer to the official website (<http://www.taperio.org.tw/>) for further details of the event.

Hoping to see you in Taipei, Taiwan.

Tony Shing-Zeng Dung, D.D.S., Ph.D.
President, Taiwan Academy of Periodontology
